

Winsor Big Breakfast

At the end of the last half-term, we saw the first of our regular Big Breakfast Events where pupils and their families were invited in to school early to enjoy a multicultural breakfast feast serving dishes from around the world.

Thankfully, the weather held off and we were even able to get the steel pans out to bring a great end to our Cultural Carnival Week. Here is what some of our parents had to say: "Lovely, I think it's great. Children get to try things they wouldn't normally try. Blending the nations."

"Really fun, we are happy for parents, teachers and children to come together, we haven't seen this before."
