GROUP SESSIONS

Do you have children aged 2-11 years? A Positive Parenting Programme group session could help you be a better parent. Groups discuss how parents can work with their children using tried and tested parenting techniques.

Groups consist of four or five sessions, at a school or Children's Centre, three pre-arranged telephone calls from a Triple P practitioner at a time convenient to you, plus a follow-on meeting.

Sessions help parents/carers to think about how they are bringing up their children and ways to make changes.
